CARDINAL ANNUAL...1952

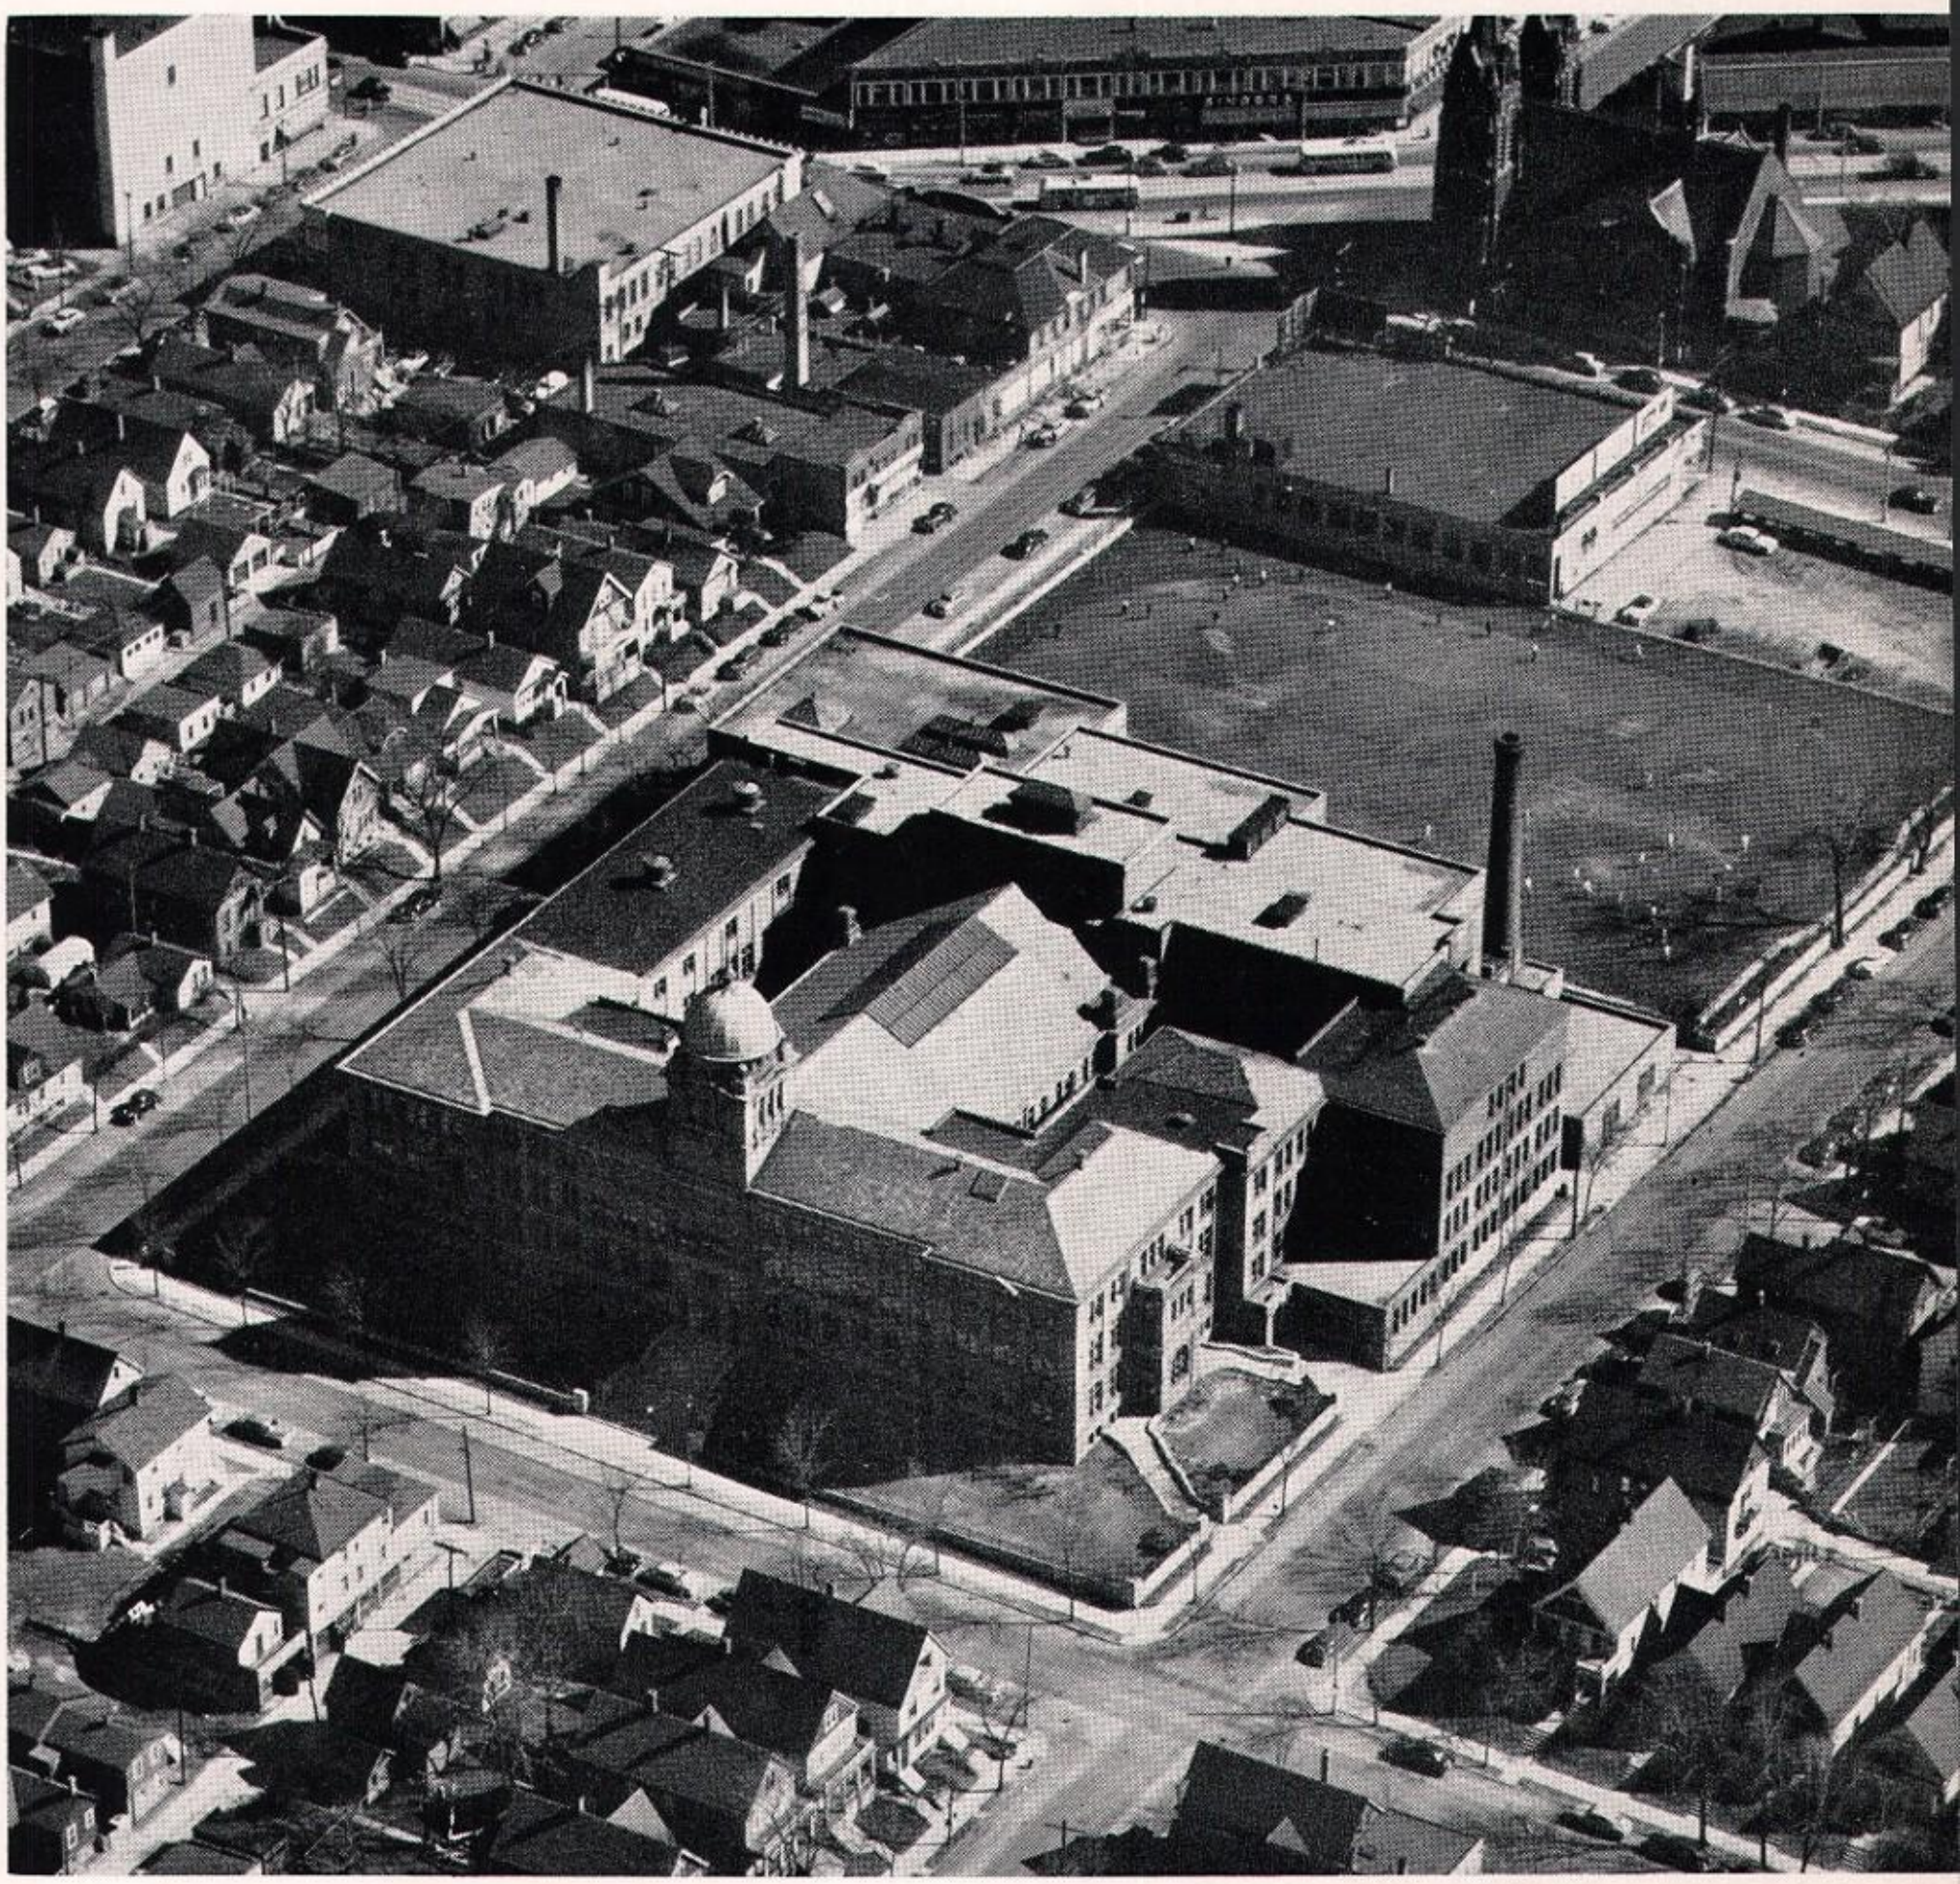
Foreword . . .

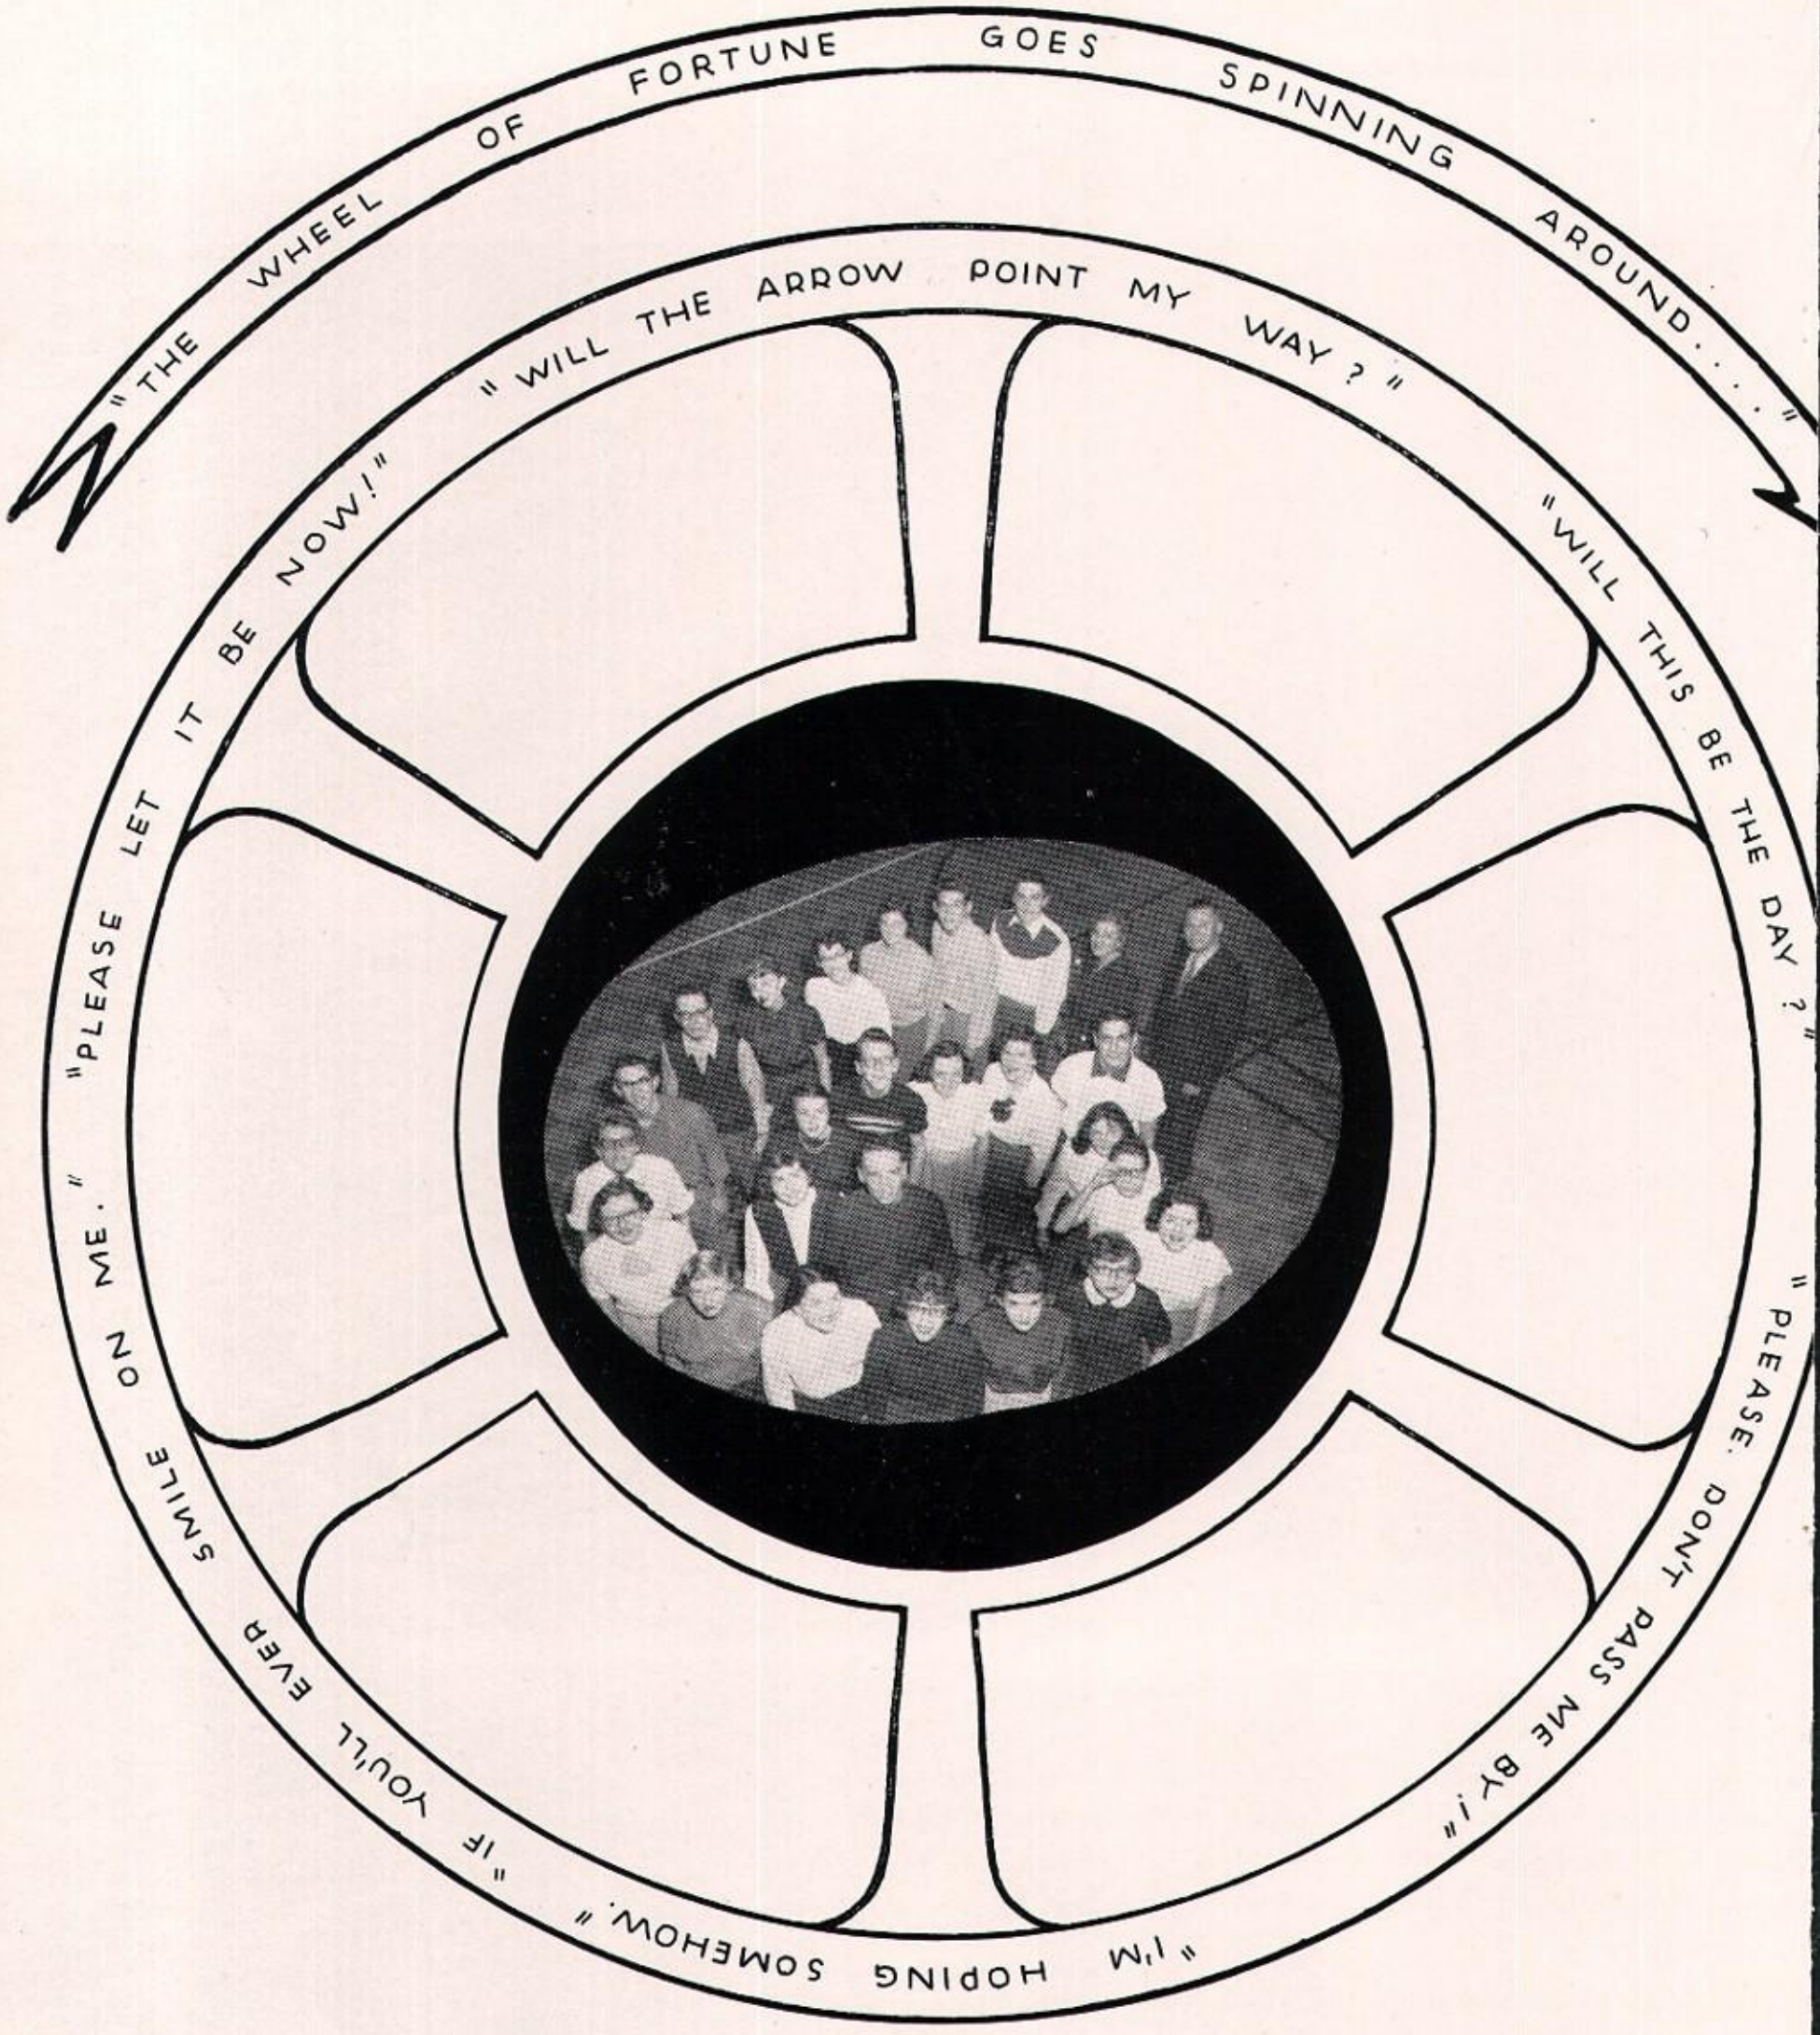
AMATEUR SHOW of '52

Hands on South Division clocks move fast, speeding all amateurs on the 1952 show to their goals. The swiftly turning wheel of fortune smiles down on all who are willing to take a stake in a future at South Division.

Master of ceremonies Earle N. Fricker heads the production staff of South's greatest show with the faculty as his assistants. Dealing out chances for careers is the main feature of their program.

Here it is--your wheel of fortune! Spin it well for life is a gamble, and now is the time to win your share of South's golden opportunities.





"THE WHEEL OF FORTUNE GOES SPINNING AROUND. . . ."
"WILL THE ARROW POINT MY WAY?"
"WILL THIS BE THE DAY?"
"PLEASE DON'T PASS ME BY!"
"I'M HOPING SOMEHOW."
"IF YOU'LL EVER SMILE ON ME."
"PLEASE LET IT BE NOW!"

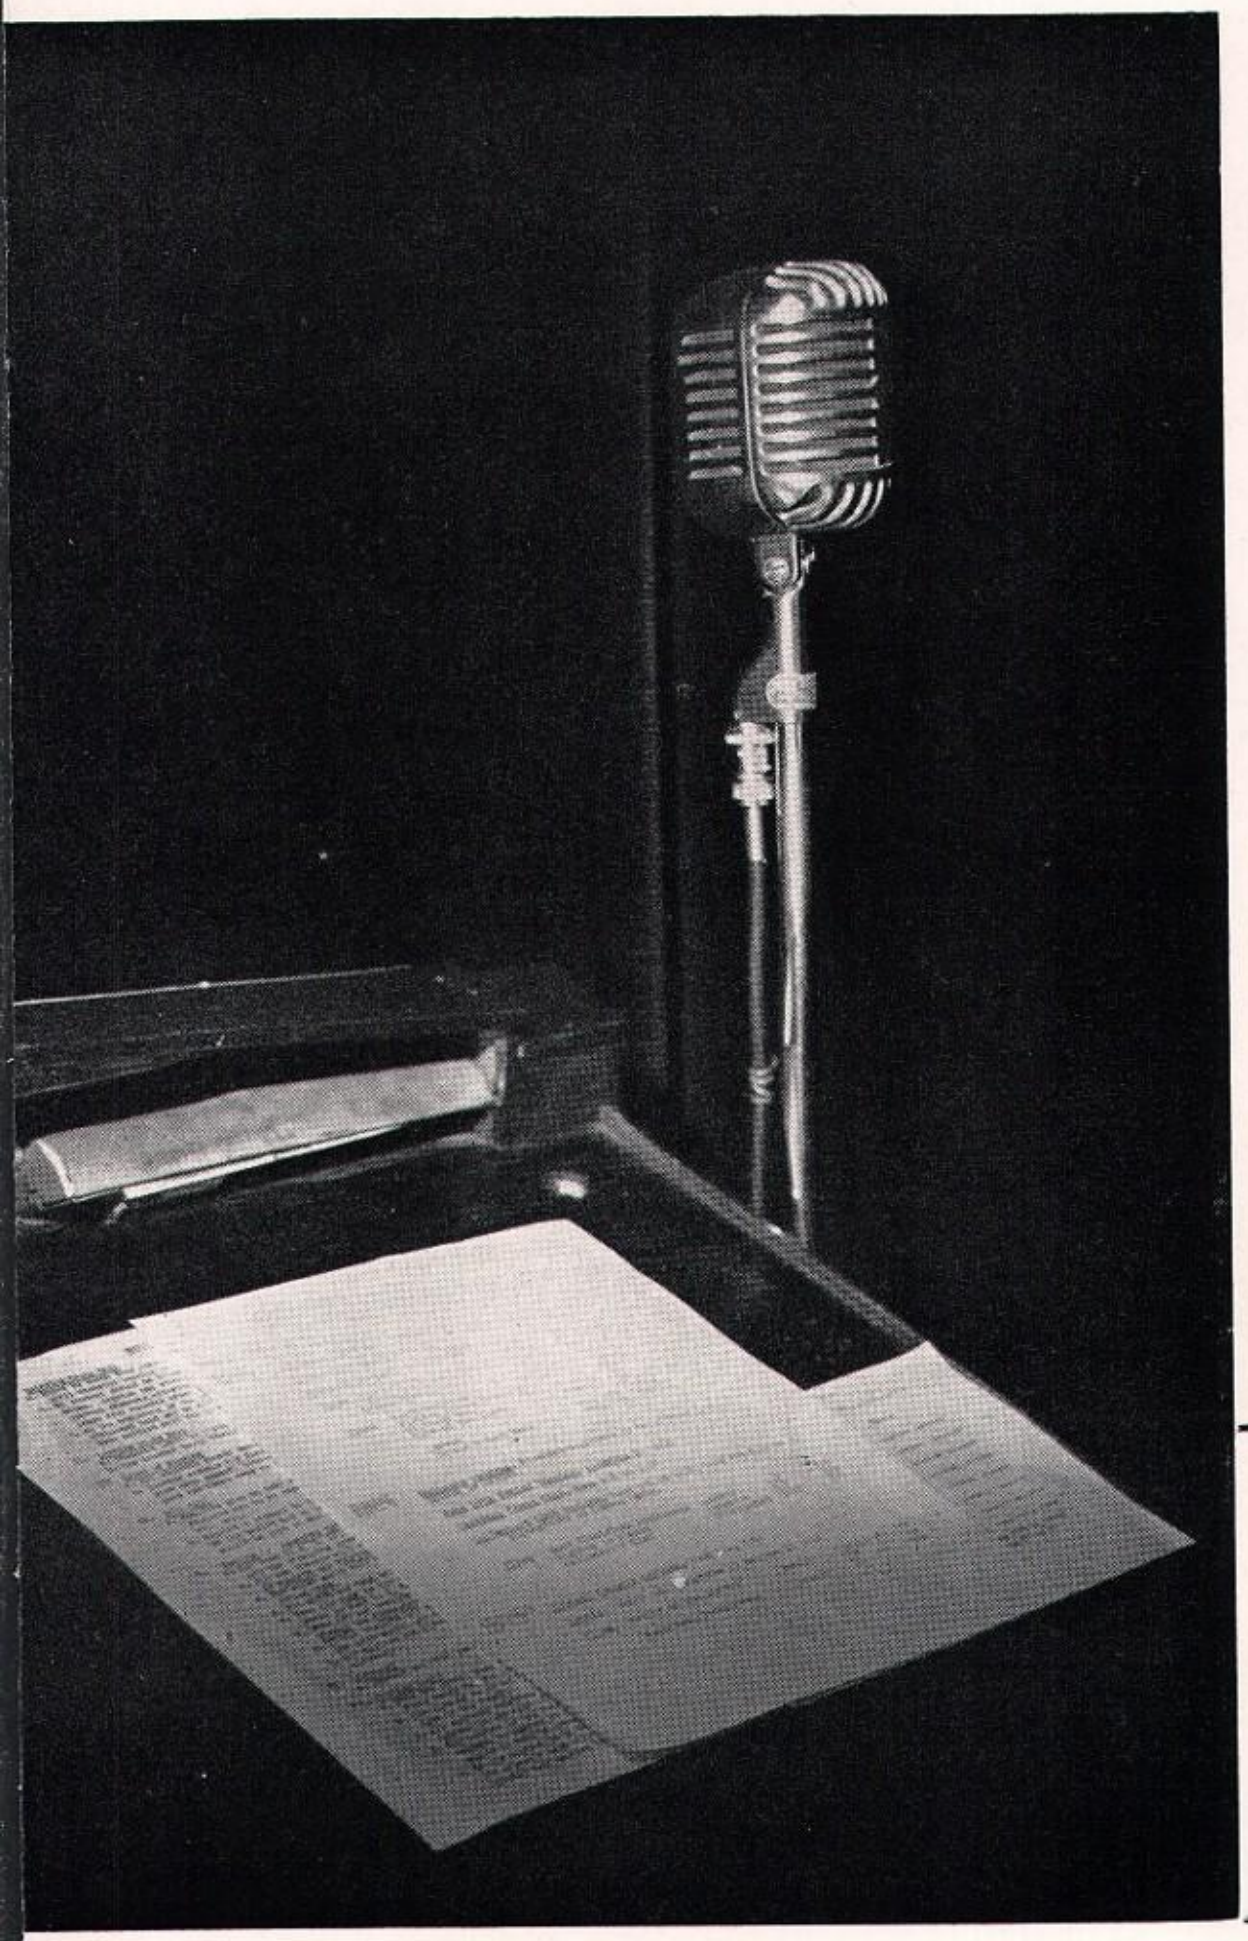
Dedication . . .

lmost synonymous with the name of South Division is the e of Miss Estelle Stone. An active figure at South for the past nty-eight years Miss Stone has well earned her reputation. senior counselor's efficient work with young people, whether hool, in the business world, or in the armed forces, has made a recognized authority in life advisement work in this part he country.

ringing representative leaders of various occupational fields ddress and consult with students about vocations on Career is one of Miss Stone's outstanding accomplishments. Pre- ng programs for upperclassmen and helping graduate stu- ts plan their future are two of her many duties.

iss Stone's deep interest in students has caused her to take active part in extracurricular affairs. Besides attending all ol functions, she also supervises the prom and senior ban- ts. In heartfelt appreciation for her untiring work in behalf outh Division, we, the students, dedicate the 1952 Cardinal ual to Miss Estelle R. Stone, The Counselor of the Year.

THE FACULTY



EMCEES ON OUR 1952 SHOW

PRINCIPAL

Mr. Earle N. Fricker

Looking to the future and upholding the traditions of South are the aims of Principal Earle N. Fricker. With a keen interest in the welfare of his students and the appearance of the building, he has worked vigorously to improve conditions at South.

Among Mr. Fricker's many achievements are the completion of the team room, fluorescent lighting in rooms 124 and 125, the remodeling of the wood shop, and the painting of the asbestos curtain in Coblentz hall. Other contemplated changes include more new equipment, modern lighting, and a students' lounge.

In his three years at South Mr. Fricker has proved a capable, understanding, guiding hand to his students. Always interested in their affairs and opinions, he is often seen chatting with them in the corridors. All will remember these suggestions: "Take a course to improve yourself, not just to make a credit. The test of your faith is the life you lead 24 hours a day and seven days a week."

VICE-PRINCIPAL

Mr. Alexander E. Morstad

Neither snow, nor rain, nor cloudy skies can dull the cheery "Good morning, South" with which Mr. Alexander E. Morstad begins each day at South Division. His announcements at 8:30 and sixth hour play an important part in the day's activities.

Taking care of tardiness and disciplinary matters are two of his many other duties. Another affair that comes under his management is the lost and found department.

An avid fan of school sports he can be seen at many athletic events. His interest is also shown in encouraging the boys to participate in sports, in his urging students to support the teams, and his Monday morning comments on week-end sports events.

Vice-principal at South for the last five years Mr. Morstad has always been an integral part of the spirit of South Division.

Miss Margery Barry
Miss Coletta Batz
Mrs. Annetta Bernfeld
Mr. Eugene Biddick
Miss Mary Black
Mr. Harry Blair
Mrs. Mildred Blauert

Congratulations are in order from Mr. Raymond Hansen and Miss Coletta Batz as the top three salesmen, Barbara Bertling, Robert Esqueda, and Richard Pilak (left to right) receive the final report on ticket sales. Top honors go to Richard whose record for football games is 419. Distributing tickets to homerooms, collecting money from salesmen on Fridays, and keeping records are extracurricular jobs for Mr. Hansen and Miss Batz.

"At last! The end of the pots and pans!" sigh Donald Gruel, Shirley Goetzke, and Gerald Jeziorski (left to right) as Mrs. Mary Ellen Huberty, cafeteria manager, and Carol Gritz, cashier, count receipts of the day. As a reward for helping the busy cook with her numerous chores, these students receive a hot meal every noon and the small fee of twenty-five cents per period.

"What a story this will make!" declares Miss Delores Pederson to Ted Torcivia (extreme right) as fellow sports writers Eugene Miller, Robert Larka, William Plautz, and Robert Fox (left to right) approve. Training boys on the staff to write snappy stories is one of the many duties of this Cardinal weekly adviser and history teacher. Headline writers and copyreaders also master their printers' signs under her tutelage.

"Let's hope he doesn't lose it again," comments Mr. Charles Sherman to key monitor Oliver Provencher. What is room 225? It is a haven for absent-minded students of S.D.H.S. Seeing that lockers are kept in usable condition, keeping every key in the building on file, holding locker inspection, and maintaining a double file of every student in school are some of the important jobs of Mr. Sherman and his helpers.

"Soften up, there!" Mr. Edward Terrill advises members of the Pep band who are reheasing for a wrestling rally held in Coblentz hall. This group appears at all pep meetings to encourage students to support the various athletic teams at South. These syncopated rhythm kings are Richard Gardner, Richard Zuege, Robert Wilkes, Gary Knight (bottom row): Ralph Sett, Mr. Terrill, Fred Lampe (row 2:) Richard Schultz (row 3).

Gaining practical experience, monitors Mavis Kleban (left) and Dorothy Dermody (right) consult with Miss Frances Leenhouts (seated), who is charge of attendance. These students help the regular office staff to maintain a high degree of efficiency in keeping records. Dorothy checks study hall absence sheets, sends post card inquiries to parents, files excuses, and calls students to the office. Mavis checks afternoon absences and does filing.

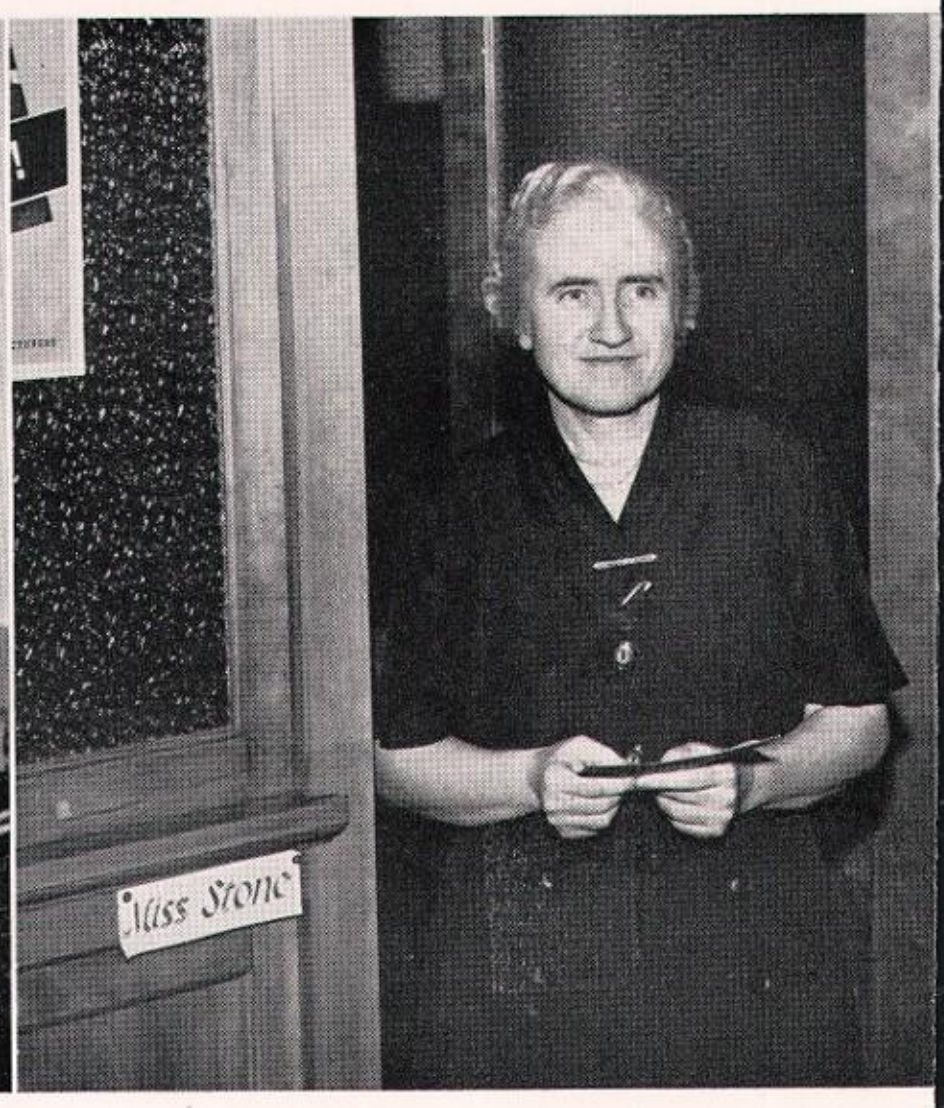
Freshmen get a helping hand in their struggle adjusting to high school life from their counselor, Miss Veronica Sullivan.

To get acquainted with second year students and their pr is the goal of Mrs. Mildred L. Blauert, sophomore adviser.

OUR COUNSELORS—ALWAYS AT THE WHEEL

Mr. Conrad A. E. Saskowski, junior adviser, selects delegates to represent South at Badger State and Trees for Tomorrow.

Senior counselor, Miss Estelle R. Stone, will give you help ciding which vocation to choose for your future years.



Miss Frances W. Durbrow

ON THE RETIRED LIST

In the summer of 1951 Miss Frances Durbrow, chairman of the language department since 1942, retired. During her thirty years at South, she had endeared herself to many South Siders by organizing the Inter Nos club, preparing the diplomas for graduation exercises, and directing noon hour study groups.

Merely to be in Miss Durbrow's class was a stimulating educational experience. It meant coming in contact with a true scholar, who represented the highest ideals of character and culture. Her classes recognized these sterling qualities. They appreciated her high intellectual integrity, her standard of excellence, her breadth of vision, and especially her selfless devotion to them and to all South's interests. And now students and faculty of South Division extend to her a heartfelt "Ave atque Vale" for the years ahead.

Mr. Bertram E. Brown

Mr. Bertram Brown, whose thirty years at South from 1911-1941, were spent in teaching history and civics, died November 4, 1951 after a short illness. He was head of the social science department, supervisor of Coblentz hall, and active in sports. Besides being athletic manager at South for many years, he coached football, basketball, and track.

Training graduating seniors to get safely down the stage steps at commencement was his most unusual job. At times, however, he was unsuccessful, for as he remarked, "They fell so fast that there wasn't anything I could do but pick them up." His keen sense of humor kept everyone in his United States history classes alert and interested.

This alumnus of Franklin university became vice-principal of Pulaski High school after leaving South in 1941. At the time of his death Mr. Brown was vice-principal at Custer High school.

WE DEDICATE OUR TROPHY CASE

South Division's oldest athlete, Mr. Arthur Brett, class of 1896 and Mr. Chris Steinmetz, class of 1902, unveiled the Memorial trophy case at a dedication ceremony in Coblentz hall, May 28, 1951. Old and young graduates recalled memories of South as Judge Herbert Steffes, master of ceremonies, introduced the honorary guests who represented the city, alumni, three faiths, and the classes that contributed toward the case. It is a permanent memorial to the boys who died in both World Wars.

Mayor Frank Zeidler, Mr. William C. Knoelk, a p nent Milwaukee educator and a graduate of South of 1900; Miss Hermine Foelske, former chairman English department; Mr. Frederick Potter, a school director; Reverend Father Charles J. Keyser, Pastor
Kuehn, who acted as hostesses. Donald Stielow sang as part of the musical program.

OUR GOLD STARS

Pfc. Raymond Jesko

Taking part in the Inchon landing, marine Pfc. Raymond Jesko was fatally wounded in a fierce Chinese counter-attack, December 10, 1950. Private Jesko is the seventy-fourth gold star to be added to South Division's service flag.

Capt. Stanley Lankiewicz, Jr.

Air force Captain Stanley Lankiewicz Jr., South's third gold star hero of the Korean war, was killed in a rescue plane crash near Tacoma, Washington, January 19. Stanley was a June graduate of the 1936 class.
